

WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold.

Sweet strains of heavenly music fall Upon the ears, a sweet melody, To sounds celestial, closed to all Of earthly sense. An angel spoke, "O'er these thy servants watch will keep;
Sweet mother, Holy Infant, sleep!"

Christmas Exercises.
The Christmas spirit is the only spirit by which men want really live. It has come to be a day, it is a mood and is independent of days.
It is an institution which can be set up on any soil and under the folds of any flag. It is exceptionally interesting to children, and the Saviour of the world came into the world to enter the kingdom of heaven except you become as a little child.

The Methodist church celebrated the event by a creditable entertainment Friday night, and the usual treat to the Sunday school Sunday morning. About 10 o'clock Saturday morning, while the choir and the village were robed in a mantle of snow, a mixed chorus of male and female voices sang "Glory to God in the highest, Jesus the Saviour was born this day," as they paraded the sidewalks from one end of Main street to the other, and in the air, the lighted, especially as an awakening inspiration.

The Lutheran people observed Christmas night and gave an exceptionally good entertainment before a large audience. The church was beautifully decorated with the carpet and brilliant lights. The trial of Santa Claus on the charge of being a Myth was well rendered. Master Jas.
Paisley was the judge with a powdered wig and had twelve important personages in mythology, represented by ladies, as Jurors. Wilbert DeJano was the prisoner at the bar, and the only prosecuting witness was Dame Rumor, represented by Miss Minnie Stouffer.
The exercises closed with an enjoyable treat.

As a grand final of the Christmas spirit, Dr. J. C. Smith preached the sermon at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon, taking his text from 1st Corinthians XV, 58. It was a masterly effort worthy of a larger audience. Rev. D. L.
Clark preached at Franklin Square the same evening. Quarterly conference was held here at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. The next regular preaching service here will be held the second Sunday of January.

The Christmas spirit appeared to have entered the business houses of this village the past week, when some of them handed out presents to their customers in the way of candy, cy-gars, etc. Even the thirteenth parlors are said to have given larger glasses with free lunch and sauer kraut.

Isaac Berry is here from Sebring.

David Moss was here Sunday from Sebring.

John W. Passage spent Christmas in Youngstown.

Fred Bossert was home from All-ance Saturday.

Newton Inadue and wife of Salem were here Monday.

Earl Lewis and wife were here from New Castle Sunday.

Thos. Heaton and daughter Mary spent Christmas in Salem.

The familiar question among consumers is "How do you like the gas?"

August and Edward Vignoe were home from Youngstown over Sunday.

Frank Lewis and wife of Philadelphia spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Hannah Stouffer.

Two physicians at Lisbon were ordered arrested last Friday for failing to report births and deaths.

Young men who get "kates on" this kind of weather, had better return to the old style coaster.

The first use made of the new fire extinguisher was Friday evening, when a slight fire blazed in the floor of Geo. Allen's barber shop.

Let it be remembered that there was a snow balling match near the town pump on Christmas day. If all weather wisdom is true there will be a green Easter.

Right in the beginning of a two week's school vacation Santa Claus brought good coasting and sleighing.
Boys and girls need no reindeer under present conditions.

The jury at Lisbon trying the Canton State bank cases brought in a verdict last Friday against W. L. Davis on the first count of having removed the funds from the bank. The case occupied 12 days.

Mrs. J. D. Woods received a shower of 99 post cards on Christmas in commemoration of her birthday. Dec. 22.
Miss Margaret DeJano was also given a post card shower on Christmas day in token of her birthday anniversary.

John Bailey has sued the Salem Coal Co. for injuries received by a fall of slate in the Millville mine Nov. 1, 1909, and places his damages at $25,000.
He is 45 years of age, and says at the time of his injury he was able to earn $4.50 per day.

R. B. Maxwell has had the "running gear" of a sleigh made of gas pipe, and to the merry jingle of bells it glides over the snow as smoothly as an automobile. Bob makes hay while the sun shines and makes sleighs while the snow falls.

Matthew T. Orr, aged 73, a veteran of the civil war with four years service to his credit, died at his home in Lisbon last week Wednesday. He was a member of Thos. Heaton's company of the 104th regiment, O. V. I. He is survived by many relatives and friends.

Salem News: Mr. and Mrs. M. W.
Stamp will entertain the following guests at their home, two miles south of Alliance through the holidays: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Koonz and family, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mercer and children of Carrollton; Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith and son, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harwood, C. M. Stamp and Miss Anna Frederick, of Salem; Mr. Harry Stamp, of Philadelphia; Dr. Floyd Stamp, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stamp and sons, of Alliance.

Happy New Year to all Dispatch readers.

Marshall Sam. Platt was in Lisbon Wednesday.

The Reilly will case was reopened at Lisbon Monday.

Constable Geo. Wells of Leetonia was here Tuesday.

Miss Leora Thorp was home from Youngstown for the holidays.

Shot fired by the Peerless mine struck Monday night for $2.56.

James A. Stephens of Follensbee, W. Va., visited friends here this week.

Master Paul Vignoe is spending his school vacation with his brothers and sister in Youngstown.

Glen Smedley is spending the holidays with his parents here.

J. E. Gilbert placed a gas heater in Atkinson's pool room, Tuesday.

County auditors are now preparing delinquent tax lists for publication.

The water was shut off at the drinking fountain west of town during the zero weather.

John Wilson and James Skilcorn of Youngstown spent Sunday at the Cottage hotel.

Ed. Brown, a miner in the Buck coal mine, had his leg injured by a fall of coal Tuesday afternoon.

Misses Jessie and Edith Lentz of Salem are visiting at the home of their grandparents, L. Carrier and wife.

An Erie engine, with a flange clearer attached, passed through here Saturday cleaning the ice from inside the rails.

The ice houses of Wm. Dalrymple, J. C. Weikart, J. Son, S. Johnson and J. C. Eyster have been filled during the past week.

Mrs. Anna Conrad of Louisville, Stark county, spent the holidays at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Knopp.

The board of health met Tuesday night, when the newly elected members, A. L. Taylor, J. S. Davis and J. N. Paisley were sworn in.

The first snow of the season fell on the 17th of November, and this suggests to the weather prophets that there will be a snow before Easter.

Chas. R. Taylor of Youngstown presented his brother Alva with a bull dog for a Christmas gift, and now Alva don't know what to do with the dog.

Blue prints and maps for the use of land appraisers are being made by authorities of the county commissioners and will be ready for delivery in due time.

The country coal banks of Lixel Bro's, Tourdot & Vignoe, J. D. Smith and R. B. Maxwell are having a good sale for their output since the good snow came.

The mine inspector has discovered that the explosion of Delmore mine was caused by a too heavy shot in one of the rooms, two large shots in one room.

Mrs. Lambert Carrier entertained her brother John E. Davis, wife and daughter Eva, and Mrs. McKinnle of Youngstown from Friday until Sunday evening.

Ross Fisher went to Youngstown Tuesday and was placed upon the extra list as fireman on the Erie. Ross is a trustworthy young man and he knows he will work up to higher honors.

A story is told of a Leetonia man who has two cats named Tom and Jerry. When asked why he did not give them scientific names, such as Perry and Cook, he said "they are not poor cats."

Attorney Bert Baker of Elkhardt, Ind., a graduate of the Washington-ville high school and afterwards mayor of Salem, is visiting relatives in this locality accompanied by his family.

Some red cross stamps have been used here during the holidays. They were attached to mail matter in addition to the regular postage, and the receipts from the sale of red cross stamps goes into the hospital fund.

The outgoing council will meet for the last time tonight, and draw their pay. This council has expended more money and has more to show for it than any of its predecessors during the past few years. Of course it had the money to spend, yet it has been economical in its expenditures and most of them have been collected.

The Lisbon infirmaries inmates were kindly remembered Christmas day, when 28 chickens, 18 turkeys, and 70 pounds of candy were served.

Rev. Clark has closed a series of meetings at Franklin Square, but has not yet decided when he will begin here; as he will be assisted by an evangelist, it depends largely upon the convenience of his assistant.

Peter McGowan of near New Albany was here last Thursday in the interest of his projected interurban railway from Youngstown to Salem and Washingtonville. He was looking for some competent person to manage his interests here and was referred to A. L.
Taylor, who in turn referred him to H. H. Berry, but owing to the holiday rush the matter was laid on the table for a few weeks.

The Morgan Engineering Co. at Alliance where some Washingtonville men are employed, is manufacturing machines for conserving the mine products in the anthracite region in Pennsylvania. In this region there are over a billion tons of waste product, called clum, and it is being increased at the rate of seven million tons yearly. The clum, by these machines, is pressed into a solid, called brickettes, which will burn. Millions of dollars have been spent in the effort to discover a method whereby the waste can be used.

Among the Christmas visitors, and those who will stay longer are: John Simpson and Clint Taylor of Cleveland, Philip Herrman of Lorain, Fred Langbottom and C. L. Vallandigham of South Salem, and David Summerville and wife and Miss Florence Culler of Alliance, John Longbottom and wife of Akron, C. R. Taylor of Youngstown, Mrs. Laura Corcoran of Middlesox, Grace King and wife of Paterson, New Castle, Will Bilger of Middlebranch, Stark county, Miss Mabel Pirth of Sebring, Robert Bell and Billy Holkyard of Granville, Ill.
Samuel Andrew of Mansfield is here to help celebrate the birthday of his mother, Mrs. Mary Andrew, which will occur on New Year's day. Jonson Andrew, wife and daughter Je-nnet are also here to help celebrate.

Ezra and Lizzie Knopp are visiting friends in Wadsworth.

Thermometer 4 below zero this morning. "Is it cold enough for you?"

O. C. Weikart unloaded a car of corn Wednesday that was shipped from Piqua.

John Nesbit, a well known roller of this locality, returned from Gary and Chicago, Wednesday.

J. C. Weikart & Son and W. E. Roller issue bonds to their customers with every cash purchase.

Cleveland and Pittsburg morning papers have been a few hours late arriving here the past week.

Harvey Andrew and family of Elyria spent the holidays at the home of his brother, John Andrews.

A sled from Leetonia passed through here Wednesday night for Salem and gave the high school yell.

Floyd Stamp of Boston and Miss Mae Richards of Alliance were guests on Tuesday at the homes of O. Bos-ser and C. H. Weikart.

J. L. Fitzpatrick attended a meeting of the land appraisers of Mahoning county in Youngstown Tuesday. Many opinions and new views were expressed, one being that real estate should be listed at its rental value; but it was finally agreed to observe the law and list it "at its true value in money."

The voters reported their consciences in the good judgment of these appraisers, and after they shall have performed their sworn duties, the state board of equalization will pass upon their work and in some localities will add to or take from the values as reported by the appraisers, so that justice may be done without burdening the taxpayers.
In the past the great burden has had to be borne by land owners in the rural districts.

Mine Workers' Convention.
The official call for the twenty-first annual convention of district six, United mine workers of America, has been sent out by the secretary. The convention will be held at Columbus, commencing January 11. The sixth district includes all of Ohio, and the convention will elect the officers of the state organization besides giving attention to other matters of business.
The following is the list of candidates: President, D. H. Sullivan, Coshocton; Vice president, John Moore, Rendville; Frank Groves, Wellston.

Secretary, J. C. Savage, Columbus; Percy Tetlow, Washingtonville.

National executive board member, (one to elect) Edmund Thomas, Redfield; A. R. Watkins, Yorkville; P. J.
Gorman, Barborton; Robert Legg, Brysville.

Auditors, (3 to elect) Conrad Weim, Murray; Jos. Pennington, Conroy; Fred Corliss and family of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with Constance Begeot.

Miss Ethel Lewis is spending the holidays with relatives in Cleveland.

Floyd Miller and sister Cella are spending the holidays with relatives in Loveland and Calla.

South Side School Report—During
the month of December the following pupils were perfect in attendance: Vera Corl, Velma Mayberry, Marion
Moherman Neva Corl, Leroy Osborn, Fred Osborn, Clara Osborn, Harry Moherman, Vernon Corl, Harold Mayberry, Edna Heintzelman, Teacher.

Dublin.
Dec. 29—L. C. Manchester and family visited relatives in Youngstown Saturday and Sunday.

A few days ago while one of Harvey Weikart's teams was hauling heavy logs through Dublin, a wheel was wrecked which necessitated unloading the log. Soon after while the log was being moved, the horse driving to town, his horse became frightened at the log, plunged into the ditch, upset the buggy and landed the occupants on the ground. Through the plucky efforts of Myron the horse was prevented from running away.
Fred McGowan and son Myron were hurt though somewhat lightly. Harry W. J. McGowan and wife visited in Salem Christmas.

Fred Goe spent several days the past week visiting friends in Youngstown.

Those who took dinner at John Martin's Monday were: Monroe Hull and family of Berlin, Will Martin and family and Chauncey Jerome, wife and little daughter of Peach Hill, Miss Mary Martin of Salem and Fred Mayer and wife.

James Park and wife ate Christmas dinner at Hagis Stuart and wife.

Ed. Hull and wife and Prof. Hull of Boardman were Sunday guests at C.
Hull's.

C. A. Gee, wife and daughter were in Youngstown Friday.

Samuel Burky and family of Poland spent Christmas at Stewart Sharpe's.

Miss Mary Martin, who spent a few days here with her brother, John Martin, returned home to Salem Monday evening.

Homer Clay of Peach Hill called on his brother Monroe Sunday.

Fred McGowan and wife spent Christmas in Youngstown at the home of W. C. Webster.

Greenford.
Dec. 29—Miss Margaret Fisher and Mrs. Seth Bane of Monongahela, Pa., are visiting J. C. Hendricks and family.

A gasoline lighting plant has been placed in the school church.

There will be a dance in K. of P.
hall Saturday night.

Green township Sunday schools will hold their quarterly meeting in the Disciple church Sunday, Jan. 16, afternoon and evening.

Ed. Bone, the humorist, will entertain in K. of P. hall Saturday evening, Jan. 8. This is the fourth number of the lecture course.

The Christian church at Greenford has secured the services of A. B.
Moore of Alliance for the coming year.
He will begin Sunday, Jan. 2, preaching morning and evening.

Greenford School Report—Pupils perfect in attendance for the month ending Dec. 21, were Anna Bush, Ruth Cook, Marjorie Cook, Garth Coy, Otis
Calvin, Lee Calvin, Archie Ingledue, Raymond Ingledue, Idella Ingledue, Elizabeth Yeager, Esther Yeager. Those
absent one day or less were Dewey Bush, Ruth Brightwell, Rebecca Bright-well, Vernon Charlton.

Nois F. Holben, Teacher.

Patrolize Dispatch advertisers.

Cornersburg.

Dec. 30—The Christmas entertainment at the south side school house Wednesday evening was a very pleasant affair. The program consisted of recitations, songs, and dialogues, and the distribution of gifts and good things from a Christmas tree to scholars and parents. The teacher deserves great credit for the proficient manner in which the children rendered their various exercises and many other features which assisted in amusing all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Grandstaff of Pittsburg have moved into the house with Carl Smith.

The remains of John Grove of Austintown were interred in the Union cemetery Sunday afternoon.

C. C. Corl and wife spent the latter part of last week with relatives in Pittsburg and McKeesport.

Frank Osborn and wife spent Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. Irvin Y. Corl, of Canfield.

A baby born last born last Thursday night to Mr. and Mrs. U. F. Kistler.

Floyd Miller spent the first of the week with his uncle, W. E. Grim, near Columbiana.

Miss Celia Miller has recovered from a slight illness.

There will be a dance in Fink's hall Saturday night.

John Brobst and wife and Nick Woods of Canfield spent Christmas at Clyde Corl's.

John Smith, wife and son Joe were Christmas guests at the home of the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.
George Baldwin, of Boardman.

H. N. Starr, wife and two daughters were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shields of Youngstown.

Mrs. Roy Osborn and son Leroy spent Christmas Sunday at F. S.
Osborn's in Youngstown.

Mrs. George Brooks and two sons of Colorado are spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Hamann, of Youngstown.

Scott Blackburn, wife and son Donald of Youngstown were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith.

Floyd Miller and his Christmas dinner at the home of his uncle, Edward Sprinkle, of Canfield.

Mrs. William Lynn is laid up with a badly sprained knee, the result of a fall.

A. McCollum, wife and son Allen of Youngstown were Saturday evening callers here.

James Dumphy spent a few days at the home of Oscar Heintzelman near Canfield.

Donald Greer of Canfield is spending this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Pennington, Conroy.

Fred Corl and family of Youngstown spent Saturday and Sunday with Constance Begeot.

Miss Ethel Lewis is spending the
holidays with relatives in Cleveland.

Floyd Miller and sister Cella are spending the holidays with relatives in Loveland and Calla.

South Side School Report—During
the month of December the following
pupils were perfect in attendance:
Vera Corl, Velma Mayberry, Marion
Moherman Neva Corl, Leroy Osborn,
Fred Osborn, Clara Osborn, Harry
Moherman, Vernon Corl, Harold May-
berry, Edna Heintzelman, Teacher.

Dublin.
Dec. 29—L. C. Manchester and family visited relatives in Youngstown Saturday and Sunday.

A few days ago while one of Harvey Weikart's teams was hauling
heavy logs through Dublin, a wheel
was wrecked which necessitated unloading the log. Soon after while
the log was being moved, the horse
driving to town, his horse became
frightened at the log, plunged into the
ditch, upset the buggy and landed the occupants on the ground. Through
the plucky efforts of Myron the horse
was prevented from running away.
Fred McGowan and son Myron were
hurt though somewhat lightly. Harry
W. J. McGowan and wife visited in Salem Christmas.

Fred Goe spent several days the
past week visiting friends in Youngstown.

Those who took dinner at John Martin's Monday were: Monroe Hull and family of Berlin, Will Martin and
family and Chauncey Jerome, wife and
little daughter of Peach Hill, Miss Mary Martin of Salem and Fred Mayer
and wife.

James Park and wife ate Christmas dinner at Hagis Stuart and wife.

Ed. Hull and wife and Prof. Hull of Boardman were Sunday guests at C.
Hull's.

C. A. Gee, wife and daughter were in Youngstown Friday.

Samuel Burky and family of Poland
spent Christmas at Stewart Sharpe's.

Miss Mary Martin, who spent a few
days here with her brother, John Martin, returned home to Salem Monday
evening.

Homer Clay of Peach Hill called on
his brother Monroe Sunday.

Fred McGowan and wife spent Christmas in Youngstown at the home of
W. C. Webster.

Greenford.
Dec. 29—Miss Margaret Fisher and
Mrs. Seth Bane of Monongahela, Pa., are visiting J. C. Hendricks and family.

A gasoline lighting plant has been placed in the school church.

There will be a dance in K. of P.
hall Saturday night.

Green township Sunday schools will
hold their quarterly meeting in the Disciple church Sunday, Jan. 16, afternoon and evening.

Ed. Bone, the humorist, will entertain in K. of P. hall Saturday evening, Jan. 8. This is the fourth number of the lecture course.

The Christian church at Greenford
has secured the services of A. B.
Moore of Alliance for the coming year.
He will begin Sunday, Jan. 2, preaching morning and evening.

Greenford School Report—Pupils
perfect in attendance for the month
ending Dec. 21, were Anna Bush, Ruth
Cook, Marjorie Cook, Garth Coy, Otis
Calvin, Lee Calvin, Archie Ingledue,
Raymond Ingledue, Idella Ingledue,
Elizabeth Yeager, Esther Yeager. Those
absent one day or less were Dewey
Bush, Ruth Brightwell, Rebecca Bright-
well, Vernon Charlton.

Nois F. Holben, Teacher.

Patrolize Dispatch advertisers.

North Jackson.

Dec. 29—Happy New Year!
Clarence Pierce of Warren is visiting his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs.
N. A. Anderson.

Ralph Freyman was in Niles Monday.

Mrs. R. A. Moherman is suffering with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mrs. Gertrude Gibson left Thursday for Columbus where she is employed.

Miss Hattie Witherstine of Paris is working for Mrs. Patton.

Mrs. Rachel Woodward has gone to Pittsburg to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Jones.

Mrs. Bessie Young and son Clifford of Columbiana are visiting her sister, Mrs. N. W. Hole.

At the entertainment Thursday evening Rev. J. C. Schaaf was present with a beautiful r. by the Lutheran Reformed Sunday school.

Mrs. Ida Jones of Niles spent Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. E. E.
Kale.

Organization at the Presbyterian and Christian churches next Sunday morning. All should be present to help.

Perry Kimmel and family of Youngstown spent Christmas here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Kimmel.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Greenwalt have moved into their new home.

Miss Helen Williams, our milliner, has returned home to Allegheny, Pa.

Harrison Gambel and family moved to Niles this week. Mr. Stake and family of Dakota will occupy the Gam-bel house.